Dear UCAPP Candidate:

This Common Exit Survey is designed so that the Neag School of Education’s UCAPP candidates can provide the opportunity to share perceptions of the program’s strengths, as well as areas for further refinement. This survey also will ask you to reflect on your new learnings and your aspirations.

Please try to respond to each question. The entire survey should take about 4-8 minutes. All results will be anonymous.

Thank you.
Dr. Casey Cobb; Executive Leadership Department Chair
Dr. Mary E. Yakimowski; Neag School's Director of Assessments

Section 1: Standards-based Knowledge

UCAPP aligns its courses to state and national standards. Listed below are these standards and their corresponding elements. For each element, please respond to two questions:

A) How well have you been prepared to perform this element at the building level?

B) How well have you been prepared to perform this element at the district level?

Please respond using a "1--4" rating scale; with "1" implies "not at all prepared" and a "4" implies "extremely well-prepared." If you are not sure, then select "DK" for "don't know."

* How well have you been prepared to perform the element? (1=not at all; 4=extremely well; DK=don't know)
